Parent and/or Legal Guardian Agreement Form

Thank you for your interest in your child or children attending the new Gayndah Youth Basketball Coaching group. This group is in the very early pilot stage.

This document serves as a disclaimer form. Please read it fully. Upon agreement, please fill it out, sign and have it witnessed.

Please note: The easiest way to fill out this form would be to simply type your responses, save the file, print the document and sign the form with a black colour biro in the appropriate places.

Or if you prefer to hand-write all your responses, please ensure the writing is easy to read/ legible and use a black colour biro.

The Mutual Agreement:

You agree that your child or children will conduct themselves with respect and compassion for their fellow peers/ youth and for the coaches, parent helpers and anyone else involved. Basically, you agree that 'your children will be on their best behaviour.'

You agree that your child will not deliberately endanger themselves or deliberately cause any form of physical, mental or emotional harm to any other child.

You agree that your child is seriously interested in learning and bettering their basketball game & abilities, willing to take instruction and has very keen interest in playing good 'team' basketball.

If it is found/ observed that your child is not willing to be coached, or not seriously interested in attending or is disruptive to the other youth, there will be a fair review procedure in place. We will discuss this directly with you (the parent or legal guardian) at that time. We wish for all youth to have a fun and positively rewarding experience and every opportunity. We will be extremely fair in the way we conduct ourselves. There will be a 3 warning policy in place if any child is not showing that they're abiding by the spirit of this group.

You agree that we are providing our time in the best interests of your child or children (your youth). We will conduct ourselves fairly and with their and your best interests in mind.

You agree that coaching is in part about sharing knowledge, teaching and developing skills, developing discipline within the youth & a good understanding of how to play basketball, how to operate as part of a team effectively and how to be a good sport.

If your child feels any of the coaches have been unfair to them at any time, you agree that you will contact Jay Daniells directly to discuss the matter. As in, contact us first and foremost if there are any potential concerns so we can discuss it/ them rationally and fairly to achieve a positive outcome for all.

You agree that Jay Daniells, any other coach(es), parent helper(s) and/or anyone else involved in Gayndah Youth Basketball (working title) are NOT liable or responsible for any injury to your child or children when in the care of this group.

You agree that Jay Daniells, any other coach(es), parent helper(s) and/or anyone else involved in Gayndah Youth Basketball (working title) are NOT liable or responsible for anything else unforeseen.

You also agree that it is your responsibility to ensure the safety of your child or children getting to and returning home from any basketball coaching or game session we conduct.

All coaches will have a valid Blue Card.

All coaches will have first-aid training. For full disclosure, currently Jay Daniells first-aid training has expired, however he has made enquiries to get it renewed asap.

You also agree to tell Jay Daniells of any medical conditions and any medications we need to be aware of that your child or children may have and that your child or children will have the appropriate medications with them during basketball coaching and game sessions. If you need to provide the medication to us coaches, please let us know.

Jay Daniells will ensure that all coaches have a copy of this information. If Jay Daniells is away or unable to attend a coaching session, the other coaches will therefore have this information.
